

Alan Young

November 7, 2013

On November 8, 2013 (Nov. 7th Hawaii time), Alan I.W. Young, CEO and owner of Young's Fish Market, passed away at age 60, while on vacation in Japan with wife, Jeanie, and friends. Alan was an avid golfer, active alumnus of St. Louis High, c/o '71, and a member of the Pali Lions Club.

Known for his love and laughter, Alan was the greatest friend one could have. His answer to all requests and situations was "no problem". He loved to share stories and give out little pearls of wisdom.

Alan and his sister Barbara took over Young's Fish Market from their parents, Wilfred and Charlotte Young in the early 1980's. His son, Daniel, will be the third generation of Youngs to run the business and continue providing their loyal customers with ono Hawaiian and local foods.

Alan is survived by wife Jeanette (Jeanie), children Andrea, Amy and Daniel, brother Phillip, and sister Gloria Dong.

Celebration of Alan's life will be on Sunday, Dec. 1, at Waimanalo Hawaiian Homestead Community Center, 41 -253 Ilaupole St., Waimanalo, HI 96795. Visitation 1:00 pm, Services 2:30 pm. Fellowship to follow until 5:00 pm. Private burial at later date. Aloha attire. No flowers. Online condolences at <http://www.kenordensteinfunerals.com/obituaries/Alan-Young/>.

MEMORIES BRING COMFORT WHEN YOU SHARE THEM. Post a memory, share a personal message or story, add a photo or video in honor of Alan.

“ Only Good Times by Keola & Kapono Beamer

*We were friends who rode the waves
The time we spent in our younger days
Was all in fun,
Oh the good times that we had.
We were young and it was fine
To feel your spirit as it climbs
There's no regrets, only good times.*

*We were friends in younger days
Although we went our separate ways
You were my friend,
You never turned away
Who can say what life will do,
Life is kind to just a few
There's no regrets, only good times.*

*In time, we will grow, we will change
As free as the wind and the waves
Live your life the way you choose
Find the ones who laugh with you
Like the sea will find its way to shore
As the sun sinks from the sky
Live your life and you will find
There's no regrets, only good times,
Only good times.*

“ I just met Alan at St. Louis's Class of 71 60th birthday party in Sept. in Waimanalo He catered the delicious Hawaiian food and helped out giving away the door prizes. My condolences to The Young family. May he rest in peace.

“ alan was a big guy, but he had an even bigger heart. It was great to meet him in college, and kicking back and talking story at the old Lilila street and his more modern present store was always fun. It was amazing to learn that his mother knew my mother when they were growing up, in fact they were neighbors.

He always seemed to have a smile, and lightened up the day. He was a leader of any group. And needless to say his laulau's are still the best. It seems the good guys go before their time

“ Alan was part of the large group of friends I hung out with during high school and into early adulthood. He was always smiling and upbeat and he made us all laugh. I remember Alan as someone you could always count on, and he had the biggest heart of anyone I knew. I will always have fond memories of those days and the great times we had together. I know he will be sorely missed by everyone who had the good fortune to know him. I am sorry to miss the services, as I am presently out of town and won't return in time. My deepest condolences to Jeanie and the family.

With warmest aloha,

“ I was saddened to hear about Alan's sudden passing, especially while on vacation away from home. Many years ago a group of us would practice Tai Chi at the Cathedral School on Nuuanu Avenue. Alan was one of the organizers who made it possible for us to do that. His wonderful spirit and generous nature are something I will always remember about him. Deepest condolences to Jeanie and the children.

“ My heart felt sympathies go out to the Young family. I just learned of his passing today and am still feeling the shock. I've known Alan since we were in high school (I went to SHA). One of my favorite high school memories is when Alan was the MC at the homecoming week talent show. Dressed in a black tux, he added a very humorous flair to the show. Later, when we were in college, and the holidays came around, he'd drive his van around with a bunch of the guys to do caroling. I would always have chilled champagne and german butter cookies when they came to my house. Even though I moved to the mainland, whenever I came back to Hawaii for a visit, I would always stop by and pick up my load of laulaus to take back to the mainland with me and chat with Alan for a spell. No matter how busy he was at the shop, he always had time to to catch me up. The man had a huge heart. He will be missed by everyone he touched in his life.

“ Sincerest sympathies to the entire family. My own family have been loyal patrons of Young's for years. I remember going to the Young's store near the old Chun Hoon Market when I was a little girl. Mahalo, Alan, for continuing the legacy of your parents. Your contributions will never be forgotten.

“ Even though I've spent half my life away from the islands here in the SF Bay area, I have lots of good time memories of Alan. Every time there was some gathering he'd include me in all the info and help us get together. Every time I made it to an event, whether it was 10 years or a few years, he'd be there and it would be like yesterday that I saw him last.

In Seattle 2011 and at the luau, I was reminded by Alan that it's great for us to get together, we need to appreciate every day and the time we have to connect. He lived that life and helped us do the same.

When my mother passed away, he was really great to me and shared my news with our classmates, just as he's done for many of us over the years. He stopped by on the way to work to see me and my family at my mother's memorial this year downtown! I was moved and surprised to see him, but I know that this the kind of St. Louis man that he was, he goes the extra mile. He's one of the people in my life that I'll remember as the special person that always seemed to find ways to bring others together. Alan was such a selfless, humble and kind person, I miss him deeply and send my condolences to his family.
