

Albert Rodrigues Bisho Jr..

September 18, 1944 - May 29, 2019

Al was a straight shooter type of guy and really believed in calling things as he saw them. He worked hard and got things done. Albert Rodrigues Bisho, Jr. died May 29, 2019 at The Queen's Medical Center. He was born in Honolulu on September 18, 1944.

After graduating from Farrington, 19 year old, Al, joined the Honolulu Police Department. He served his community as a police officer for nearly 30 years before retiring. An avid antique car buff he rebuilt a 1929 Model A Ford and entered many car shows and parades including Easter Seals DA CAR SHOW and won numerous trophies. He built decorative, stone gardens on both sides of his driveway and every November turned his house into a Christmas wonderland. In retirement he enjoyed the company and activities of fellow HPD veterans in Aha Hui O Na Maika'i Haola.

An only child, Albert is survived by his wife Debra, daughter Alyssa (Cliffon) Watts, and grandson Kyler Watts.

Friends may call from 9 AM to 10:30 AM at Oahu Cemetery Chapel on Monday June 17, 2019. Services begin at 10:30 AM by Father Steve Nguyen of Blessed Sacrament Church. Burial 11:30 with HPD honors at the Bisho family plot at Oahu Cemetery. See details below.
