

Mika'ele "Braddah" Lauleneke Keikiomaluhiaohauoli Kahalewai

March 6, 1981 - October 18, 2014

Mika'ele "Braddah" Lauleneke Keikiomaluhiaohauoli Kahalewai age 33 of Honolulu, died October 18, 2014 in Dayton, Nevada. He worked as an executive chef at the Dayton Gold Canyon Cafe where he introduced marinated Hawaiian style Kalbi to Dayton's restaurant scene.. The owner of the café called him my "big time boss man".

He was the life of any party and when there was trouble he was always the peacemaker.

He is survived by his mother, Melvamay Momilani Kahalewai, sisters; Mikioi (Honey Girl) Kahalewai, Kristine, Mabel and Leona-May "Lehua" Kolish, Hanai sons; Kamakani and Kymani-Soljah Kahalewai, Hanai brothers; Dwayne "Boogie" Rassmussen and Keoni Anakalea, 5 nieces and 5 nephews.

After Mass "Braddah" will be cremated and his ashes returned to the care of his family.

Post a story or a memory of "Braddah"; even post a picture or video on this website. They will be treasured.

“ My friend ... I know your just a vail away I will miss you being "Mr.Dj" and hoggin all the music lol I will miss your cookin "BBQ'IN" your laugh your smile and our chance to be "roommate's" coming up too . Your laughing and singing ... I guess I haven't yet wrapped my head around this or that your just not here ... I also know you were gonna go home for a bit and if you came back well we talked and you didn't want to leave me hangin without a roomy cuz it would be hard to leave to come back here .. and I get it . Yet still your just a kid dang it I been praying everyday that you get to go home .. I know you know Brahhda that I believe in spirit and the strength in that I have awesome memories of going to the lake hangin with our friends Sheldon and Bridg you shaking that big'ol tree outa that yard for me in hopes that the tree wouldn't die throwin it on the truck and driving it back to my house ... lol that was the best ! You helped me so much with me not being able to do much with this injury ! I will always be grateful to have had you in my life you are a good human a beautiful soul a wonderful friend Your mama made a good boy . Aww the crazy reggae show up at the lake makes me smile now YOU are my friend who I can't believe is gone ... I've been praying you up kid ! I send all my love and all my heart's love to your family and ALL who love's you I am honored to have been able to be your friend aloha your forever friend Reb
